

RED DIAMOND GAME AND TABLE September 3rd, 2003 Page B

I Russell Richard Kalis Citizen of the United States of America do hereby declare I believe myself to be the first Inventor of the Red Diamond game and table.

My address is as follows;

2484 Highway 20 South

Conyers, Ga. 30013

The specifications' of the Red Diamond Game and Table are.

The Red Diamond Game and Table is a game played with the standard 52 card deck of cards. It is a new game and a new design of table. (Table refers primarily to the top playing surface of a table, most tables have 4 legs this one does also.) It is a table that is 6 foot long 3 foot 6 inches wide. The back part is straight. The front is cut on a radius to allow six people to sit in front of a dealer that stands at the back flat side. The top has a 3/4 inch wide line that divides the table space into six equal sections for each player to play at. In each six sections there are a 3 1/2 inch diameter yellow circle that says the word BET in the center. In each six sections there is a descending line of symbols placed within a 1inch yellow circle spaced one inch apart.

The first symbol being a Red Diamond

The second symbol being a Red Heart

The third symbol being a Black Spade

The fourth symbol being a Black Club

In each of the six sections six inches below the 3 1/2 inch circle that says BET there is a one inch by three inch yellow box with the following instructions.

Diamonds beat hearts, Spades and Clubs.

Hearts, beat Spades and Clubs.

Spades beat Clubs.

Same Suite; High Card Wins.

All Ties; are a push.

In each of the six sections, there is a copyright notification in a 1/2 inch by 3 1/2 inch yellow box that says Red Diamond, Copyright 2000 Russell R. Kalis

In the center of the table there is a 3 1/2 inch by 5 inch ace of diamond card, above it with a 1 1/4 inch by 5 1/4 inch yellow box with the words Red Diamond, Owner Russell

R. Kalis. Below it is a one inch wide by 7 inch long yellow square with the statement ;

Red Diamond Bonus Pays 3 to 1, Player has Ace Of Diamonds-Dealer has a Diamond.

By

Russell R. Kalis

Inventor